Klorman Construction Selected as Design/Build Contractor for Parking Structure in El Segundo

Woodland Hills, Ca. – Oct. 31, 2013 --- Klorman Construction Corp. has been chosen by Marshall Property & Development as the design and build contractor for the construction of a 203-car concrete parking structure El Segundo, Ca.

Woodland Hills, Ca.-based Klorman Construction will be responsible for the construction of a three-level, 203-car post-tensioned concrete parking structure that will serve the needs of the Marshall 2100 Grand project, an El Segundo office development that has been renovated by Marshall Property and Development. The additional parking structure, to be constructed on an adjoining lot to the office building, will help reposition the office project and improve its appeal to prospective tenants.

“We’re proud to assist Marshall Property & Development on this opportunity,” said Bill Klorman, president of Klorman Construction. “The improved parking to square footage ratio will make this renovated project an attractive options for new office tenants.”
